THE WATER ISSUE

From waterfront hotels and beautiful Carolina beaches to our favorite lakes and hidden waterfalls in the Blue Ridge, this issue is dedicated to life on the water.

NO. 77 | SUMMER 2021

AN EPIC SCULLERY

words ELEANOR MERRELL / photo MEKENZIE LOLI

THIS ROOM, WHICH IS ATTACHED TO THE MAIN KITCHEN, is complete with dark gray contrasting walls, a bright tile floor, and gorgeous brass hardware. A combination of open and closed cabinets offer ample storage and display space, while a central island anchors the room and provides additional workspace. The central chandelier adds texture and creates a compelling focal point. The scullery was built by Arcadia and brought to life by interior designer Lucy and Company and residential designer Smith Slovik.
